SPEED Rules and Regulations | 2011/2012 Show Season

PUNTA GORDA HORSEMAN'S ASSOCIATION

1. The By-Laws shall enforce and support the Punta Gorda Horseman's Association. The By-Laws are an incorporation of the Rules and Regulations and the current Show Bills.
2. It is the responsibility of the entire membership to promote good sportsmanship among the competitors.
3. Membership dues are due July 1st and may be paid at the regular meeting or show. Membership dues must be paid before or at the first show to retain continuous eligibility.
4. Annual Membership dues are as follows:

Non-Showing	$25.00
Single Riding Members	$45.00
Family Riding Members	$65.00
5. Nominations: A current paid member may nominate an unlimited number of horses at $35.00 per horse. Nomination fee will be waived if your nomination paperwork and your $50.00 sponsorship for each horse are submitted together. Owner/rider/handler must be a member and horse must be nominated before acquiring points toward year-end awards. A current Coggins test must be included with a nomination form (as required by state law). The horse's name must be the same as the Coggins papers unless specifically marked (AKA) barn name. Coggins will be checked at the facilities entry gate.
6. Every Member is required to work a minimum of 15 hours in order to qualify for year-end awards. At least 7 hours must be worked by January 1 or within 3 months of joining, (whichever is longer). Fifteen hours can be purchased for $300.00 by May 15. Any member who fails to meet the requirements, due to personal reasons, may appeal to the grievance committee.
7. Any member can work for another member for the 15 required hours. If working for another member those hours MUST be designated as such at the time they are worked and may not be later transferred. If working towards 40 hour award ALL hours must be worked by the individual going for the award.
8. Members are required to check in with the designated person at the beginning and at the end of their shift to receive credit for time worked.
9. Only previously designated workers are permitted in the announcer's booth.
10. No one under the age of 18 shall be permitted to handle money without the supervision of an adult.
11. Workers in the registration booths have the right to request the age of any competitor. If questioned and unable to provide proof, the competitor will be permitted to show, however they must provide proof of age within 14 days. If proof is not provided then the competitor will forfeit any points earned at said show.
12. In order to run a tab you must leave a signed check or a $20.00 cash deposit with the registration booth. If you wish to enter a class, you must do so before the class begins. This can only be done by completing an entry form at the registration booth. The announcer CANNOT accept entry forms from anyone other than the registration booth. Once you have entered you may add or drop a class with an appropriate slip filled out and signed.
13. Director or their designated deputies will oversee their portion of the show. They will make sure all rules are followed; all patterns and courses are set up.
14. The Executive Board or Director present at the show has the ability to cancel the show for lack of volunteers or inclement weather.

15. A current Negative Coggins test is required by State Law. If you fail to produce a current Coggins test at the facilities entry gate you will be asked to leave the show grounds, entry fees will not be refunded.
16. If you have a grievance concerning horse show procedures you must bring that grievance to the Director of that show. During the show the Director's decision is final. If the grievance is not solved you may submit an appeal in writing to the Executive Board within seven (7) days.
17. Any abusive or profane language or any type of unsportsmanlike conduct on the show grounds is grounds for disqualification. These actions will result in the loss of points for that show and possible removal from the show grounds.
18. The judge's/announcer's decision is FINAL, Parents, guardians, trainers, etc., who wishes to discuss the judge's decision must approach the Director only. The Director may then approach the judge if necessary. No one, not showing in the called class, is allowed to enter the arena at any time, for any reason during the show and may only approach the judge when finished showing for the day.
19. The Punta Gorda Horseman's Association strongly endorses the policy of humane treatment of horses. No person(s) on the show grounds (including but not limited to the parking area and show area) may treat a horse in an inhumane manner. This includes, but is not limited to, striking the horse above the shoulder with a whip or other instrument, rapping the legs with the butt end of a whip or other instrument and showing a horse with raw or bleeding sores or any visible injury. Failure to comply will result in the immediate disqualification from the show and/or dismissal from the show grounds and may result in the suspension or revocation of membership.
20. Anyone who creates a safety hazard on the show grounds and is asked to stop by an authorized individual of the PGHA, and does not, may lose points for the show and may be asked to leave the show grounds for the duration of the show and possibly the show circuit year.
21. Alcohol or illegal drugs are not permitted at any PGHA show.
22. No Stallion may be shown by anyone under the age of 18 except for current year colts & fillies class.
23. Delays in starting the shows will be held to a minimum and will be authorized only by a Board Officer, Announcer or Director.
24. All riders are reminded that they ride at their own risk. Helmets required for all Hunter/Jumper riders and Speed riders ages 17 and under. Helmets are strongly recommended for all other riders. Florida Statutes 375.251 states an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities.
25. The Announcer and Co-Announcer's responsibility is to reflect good will and sportsmanship during the show as well as expedite the show in a reasonable manner. The Announcer must be 18 years of age or older; however substitutions may be made at the Director's discretion.
26. No rider will be allowed to register for a class after that class has begun. In Performance, Halter and Hunter/Jumper classes an exhibitor may not enter the arena after a class has been called, the gate has been closed and the class has begun unless approved by the Judge. Two minute gate call will be strictly enforced.
27. Once a class has started, no refunds will be given unless a contestant injures themselves or their horse and cannot compete in the class, or if the horse becomes unsafe. All refunds will be given at the discretion of the Director. Awards or points will not be given in the event of a refund.

28. No contestant shall refund their own money or scratch themselves from a class, this must be done at the registration booth.
29. The registration booth and/or announcer are not responsible for errors made by contestants on the registration/entry forms.
30. Anyone whose check is returned due to insufficient funds will be notified to make it good on or before the next show IN CASH. Failure to make good on the check will permanently nullify membership and year-end awards. There will be a $25.00 fee for all returned checks.
31. All riders will ride in the order in which they are assigned.
32. All riders must enter and exit through the gate designated.
33. No free exhibition rides will be allowed at any show. In paid exhibition rides, no awards or points will be given. Rider must follow the direction and gait of the class.
34. No arena equipment shall be moved or changed after the first rider completes the course. Exceptions will be made for equipment that has been broken, damaged or deemed unserviceable.
35. A contestant will be automatically disqualified for breaking a pattern or tripping the timer light, once the timer has been started.
36. All competitors will be required to use and maintain reliable, appropriate tack, attire (no tube tops or spaghetti tops are allowed) and must wear boots when riding or performing in the arena (this includes exhibition riders).
37. Lead line participants may not enter any other classes.
38. Each member or member's horse must show in front of a minimum of five judges or five shows in the same classes during the show season to be eligible for year end awards.
39. Open classes have no age limits of rider and/or handler.
40. If a competitor chooses to move up (walk to walk/trot, walk/trot/ to canter/lope, and is unable to compete at the higher level/division, the rider can go back down to the lower level/division providing they have not shown in more than two shows. Any points earned in the higher level/division will be forfeited.
41. All points earned must stay in the classes shown.
42. Walk/trot classes are open to any rider within the designated sage group who has not shown at the canter/lope, in that same discipline, at any horse show (unless otherwise noted on the prize list/showbill). If rider has cantered in English but never in Western then the participant could show walk/trot Western and vice versa.
43. If a member's horse dies or becomes unsound during the show season, prior to the following month's show, the member must notify the President and any other Officer their intentions as to whether a substitute horse or the initial horse will be ridden for the remainder of the show season. If the decision is made to finish the season on the initial horse, points will not be earned toward year-end awards while riding the substitute horse during the healing process. However, horse and rider will receive credit for attendance toward the five show/judge requirement. Substitute horse need not be nominated. If the decision is made to finish the season on the substitute horse, points will carry through, however points will not be awarded until the following month's show and proper paperwork submitted - 72 hours prior to the following month's show this decision, accompanied with a Veterinarian or licensed farrier's certificate must be presented to the President or Vice-President in writing.
