Article Four
Election of Officers

General Considerations: A member must be 21 years of age or older to hold an office. No one person can hold the same office for more than two consecutive terms. In the event there are no nominations for a particular office and the present officer is so willing, an exception may be made allowing them to be nominated and re-elected. No officer shall hold, control or maintain any other office (other than his/her elected office) as long as said elected officer is present and willing to work and maintain their office as elected.

Nominations: Nominations are to be made ~~from the floor~~ at the January and March meetings, therefore closing nominations. The secretary will have the official ballots ready for the election to be held at the May meeting. All officers are to be elected ~~in a closed ballot~~ by voice vote by the members present at the May meeting ~~plus the absentee ballots~~. ~~Official ballots will be mailed to all paid members at least two weeks prior to the May meeting by the Secretary. Absentee ballots must be received by the Secretary at least 7 days prior to the May meeting. The ballots (and absentee) will be handed to the Secretary with another board member present at the June meeting and checked off against the membership list.~~

Nominees for office(s) must accept their nomination in person or ~~by letter~~ voice, text, email or similar method at the time of their nomination. A background check must be required before elections. ~~A letter affirming that they have~~ Nominee must have never been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony involving moral turpitude ~~will be required prior to election.~~

In the event any officer, other than the President, leaves during their term of office; the Board will appoint said officer. In the event the president leaves during their term, he/she will be succeeded by the Vice President at which time a new Vice President will be named. All resignations, of any office, must be submitted to the association in the form of a written letter and read to the association members at the following meeting. The secretary will keep this letter in the association's records.

Removal of Officers: Any officer may be removed from office by a majority of the members whenever, in their judgment, the best interest of the Association will be served. Termination proceedings for any officer will follow the procedure set forth in Article One. Vacancies will be filled as set forth in Article Four.

Indemnification of Officers: The Punta Gorda Horseman's association shall indemnify the officers and anyone serving in a leadership capacity.

The Association shall purchase and maintain liability insurance on their behalf to the extent provided in and subject to the limitations of the Florida Code.

Article Five
Grievance and/ Or Dissension Committee

The Grievance Committee shall consist of the Executive Board.

If at any time any officer or member has a grievance questioning the action of the Association's decision, or interpretation seemingly contrary to the Association's Rules or By-Laws, member/officer can demand a special meeting of the Executive Board for a ruling on said grievance. Said member/officer calling for a special meeting of the grievance committee must submit in writing to the President, their argument on the problem in question and a $50 grievance filing fee. The President will notify all the members of the committee of the pending procedures, time, date and place of meeting. The Grievance committee will review all necessary documents in order to arrive at a decision. The vote of the Grievance committee will be determined by majority of the executive committee present. If the vote determines that the Association wronged a member/officer, the Association will be refund the grievance filing fee. If the decision is that a wrong was not done by the Association to a member/officer, then the grievance filing fee will be retained by the Association in the Association's general fund.
